

From the following list of services provided by Merton School Nursing, please can you select the support that the child/young person/family require

School Staff Training (you do not need to complete child or parent details)	Epipen/Anaphylaxis awareness Asthma awareness
Support with initial care plans	It is the responsibility of schools to work with parents to develop health care plans. School nurses can support and advise with the development of these.
Review current health care plans	It is the responsibility of schools to work with parents to develop health care plans. School nurses can support and advise with the development of these.
Nocturnal enuresis (night time wetting) support	Advise and support families how to manage night time wetting (we cannot support families re encopresis [soiling] or day time wetting)
Healthy eating and weight management	For any children where there is a concern regarding dietary intake and/or weight (under or overweight)
Emotional health and wellbeing (please select from the following themes and give further information below)	Self harming Anxiety/Stress Body image Sexuality and gender Relationships (School nurses will complete an initial assessment and refer to other services as appropriate)
Behavioural concerns	For children where there are no other agencies involved but there is a concern regarding behaviour either at home or in school
Health reviews (These are completed termly for children on CP plans)	Includes height and weight check and holistic review of the physical and emotional health of the child/young person
Substance misuse	School nurses are able to signpost to services support young people
Immunisations and vaccinations	School nurses can give advice to parents and young people regarding the immunisation and vaccination schedule. Merton school nurses do not administer vaccinations or immunisations.
Sexual health/teenage pregnancy/FNP	School nurses can signpost to services that support young people
Safeguarding	Please clearly document your concerns. These will be assessed by a school nurse on a case by case basis.
Hearing, dental and vision concerns	Please ask parents to seek advice from their GP